For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

Esther 8:6

What happened in: November - December 2010

Our Dear Friends,

Thank you for being mindful of us, our ministry, and helping us to carry out The Great Commission.

Yes, we need prayers! Currently, we (our church in Slovakia) are in the middle of several battles. But first, God has been blessing our family and congregation in spite of attacks.

The Christmas season was a blessing. We had a program for unchurched families that visit our family center MANNA.

Our youth collected and with a help of several adults we delivered gifts to Romanian gypsies on Christmas Eve. The gifts consisted mostly of clothing but candies and other needed items were included.

I spent 5 days at winter youth camp with our youth/young adults. We had wonderful time in the Lord.

The battles: Couple of marriages of our small church (usually 50 – 65 attended on any given Sunday) have very bumpy ride. One, over 20 years in marriage, got separated about 3 months ago. The other has personality issues. Zorka and I spend a lot of time with all involved: husbands, wives, and children.

Christmas for children

Please pray also for:

- Zorka is starting a new ladies ministry with another missionary lady fro the US, Amber. Their goal is to reach ladies thru English Bible studies.
- upcoming regional youth weekend, Feb. 11-13, 2011. Usually 75-100 young people attend from all over Slovakia.

We enjoyed our oldest daughter Rachel visiting us for three weeks. She is studying at Boston Bible College. This is her third year. There is also a freshman at the same college from our Slovak church. Both came and visited. They returned back to Boston on Sunday.

Dear Friends, words are insufficient to express our love and gratitude to you for partnering with us in this ministry. Your faithful prayers and love mean so very much to us!

In His Harvest,

Peter and Zorka Abrman
